

SMART welcomes you & hopes you will enjoy our

Third Annual

Agility On The Greens

July 15 - 17, 2011

Things you may want to know, from the trial Chair's seat.....

- NEW PREMIER SITE THIS YEAR – not to be missed !!! York School is just off HWY 68 on York Road in Monterey. Cool ocean breezes with fantastic well manicured natural grass turf and plenty of crating space will keep you comfortable all weekend.
- SMART's – IHC Agility Challenge will be offered, with a twist. Runs will not be for IFCS Team qualification purposes, but for those interested in a real Challenge. (makes for great practice though) Nice gifts from REI and others will be awarded to the top 3 in each jump height. Check the Premium for "The Twist".
- Wine Tasting.....! Saturday and Sunday Paraiso Vineyards will be serving up their award winning wines to tingle your taste-buds in between your qualifying runs. They have also been nice enough to offer up their wines to be served with your 4-Star dinner Saturday evening.
- Saturday's Ringside 4-Star Dining will again be offered for those tired and very hungry contestants this year. Check the Premium for reservation. Menu to choose from:
 - Appetizer:
 - Assorted fresh fruit
 - Salmon tray
 - Main Course:

- Other than agility...? Yes, believe it or not to some there are other things to do on the Monterey Peninsula than agility:
 - Golf galore....! The agility field is next door to the Public Laguna Seca Golf Ranch and just over the hill from Bayonet & Black Horse Golf Courses, not to forget the pristine courses in Pebble Beach.
 - Hiking.....Beaches....! The Highway 1 scenic drive has many stops for those interested in the beaches and those interested in hiking amongst the coastal redwoods. Carmel Valley, also very scenic has another arm-load of hiking options for your pleasure.
 - Shopping & Food...? You bet...! Carmel’s Ocean Avenue is a site to see. You your significant other, and your deserving K(athlete can spend time walking the famous Ocean Avenue, where you will see many other folks with their four legged family members enjoying the sights, smells, and beautiful scenery. Ocean Ave ends in a famous off-lead, dog friendly beach. Don’t forget your towels!
- SMART does what it can to make sure you not only enjoy your qualifying runs, but the fantastic vendors and surrounding areas while you are here in our backyard. COME JOIN US, AND OF COURSE ...ENJOY...!
